National Stalking Advocacy Service

Paladin – National Stalking Advocacy Service is a not for profit company dedicated to supporting victims of stalking and harassment and campaigning for justice.

Five reasons WHY you should support Paladin:

- We will give a voice to victims by offering support and advice, ensuring there is a coordinated community response, and offer expertise on risk management assessment
- We will campaign for a better deal for stalking victims by extrapolating from casework experiences.
- We will publish research briefings for the public, parliament and the media.
- We will scrutinise the new stalking law to ensure it is implemented consistently and properly.
- We will support test case advocacy aimed at changing law and practice through the courts.

If you support our work we will:

- Offer a 25% discount to all supporters on stalking training.
- Send you all parliamentary and media briefings produced by Paladin electronically.
- Continue to send you six weekly briefings detailing our priorities and achievements.
